On January 23 we celebrated Ed Roberts Day. Ed Roberts began the disability rights movement 40 years ago. Now he has his own California day. Roberts, who was the first Berkeley student to rely on a wheelchair when he arrived in 1962, is recognized as the father of the Independent Living Movement.

CID is proud to announce the unveiling of our new and improved website! We’ve added many new features, including updated program outlines, easy access to contact information, new ways to donate, and much more. Take a look at the work we’ve done and tell us what you think: www.cidsanmateo.org

Also, of you or a loved one have a success story about how CID has made a difference, we’d love to hear it. We’re looking to include your stories and photos on our website. Please give us a call or visit us on our website!

NEW PROGRAM!

Many Social Security beneficiaries (SSDI and/or SSI) would like to work, but are worried that they will lose essential benefits if they have earnings of any kind.

The Work Incentives Planning & Assistance (WIPA) Program is a FREE service to help beneficiaries of Social Security Insurance (SSDI) and/or Supplemental Security Insurance (SSI) to make informed choices about going back to work or entering the workforce for the first time.

This project will provide you with information about Work Incentives which may allow you to keep some or all of your cash benefits as well as your medical benefits.

March is National Developmental Disabilities Awareness Month and CID encourages you to help raise awareness about people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD).

People with I/DD are confronted with barriers every day. You can help to remove those barriers by engaging in conversations with members of community about developmental disabilities.

Start the conversation by going to CIDSANMATEO.ORG to download the logo below. You can attach it to an email use it on social media or share it however you like.

CID will have a booth at the College of San Mateo Farmer’s Market on Saturdays from 9am-1pm. Come on over and say hello to our staff!
