improving the quality of life for those of us with disabilities. --Evelyn and Tom S.

Forty years ago, the Center for Independence of Individuals with Disabilities started with a simple mission: support people with disabilities to achieve independence in their lives. That mission remains just as true today as it did in 1979. Now, as then, a committed group of staff, board, and community supporters work to provide vital services that directly impact the lives of those we serve. With your donation of $40 for our 40 years, we will continue to fulfill our mission and expand our reach to even more people with disabilities.
